Easter Message from Your Bishop

My Beloved Relatives in Christ, I write to you this Easter sitting in the fog we have been living in and sharing over the past couple of years.

Much can be said about that I know; I hope this focused image will suffice as we consider Easter in 2022.

We have “been through a lot!” What an understatement! Much of our personal and shared experience has been the ways we have been searching for answers. Life has moved forward as it always does, forced onward because of and through change. We still have to deal with grief, sickness, loss, personal and community challenges. We still want to celebrate life’s joys!

We have discovered that many of the things that were familiar channels to get us through have been blocked. Things like fellowship, shared meals, Church services, doctor’s appointments, vacations, family, weddings, baptisms... Somehow, we moved on, finding new pathways through time and need. Through it all, I know that in the Church, and in our hearts, we never stop trying to find each other, so that we can continue to travel together. We are now a people and a Church whose lives have been changed and challenged.

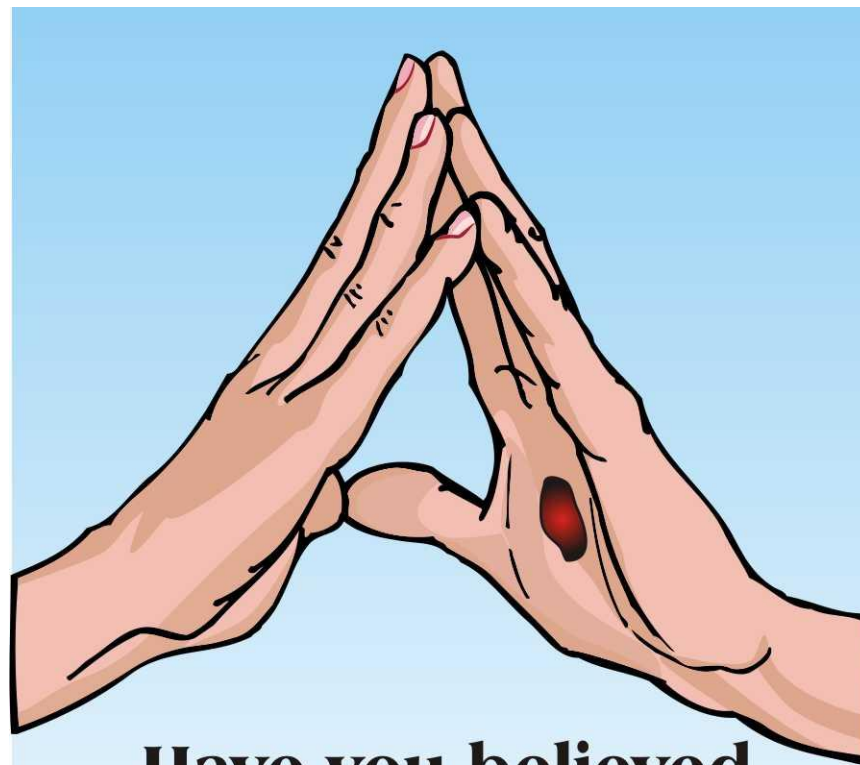

That brings me to Easter Morning. Think about the people of Jesus time. They were certainly invested in Him. They believed in His message, and now, shaken and uncertain, were realizing that things were going to be radically different, and that they had much to learn. In the early Church, every word, memory, teaching and example of Jesus began to take on newer, deeper meanings. They began to study just what His death and resurrection meant.

That is exactly where we are now. I thank God that we are together. Just as our ancestors began to receive God’s blessed revelation through our Saviour, may we too, come together, look into an empty, desolate place of burial, and realize that hope lives.

Happy Easter Everyone! May the power of the Christ who Suffered, Died and Rose again descend upon you, fill you and guide you, and keep us together as one family.

Christ is Risen! The Lord is risen Indeed Hallelujah!

+John, Easter 2022

Have you believed because you have seen me?

Blessed are those who have not seen
and yet have come to believe.
