To our church family at Holy Trinity:

On behalf of Tammy and I and our family, we would like to take this opportunity to wish you all a very merry Christmas and a blessed new year. These past few years we have seen many things changing in our world but the good news of the gospel; that gift that came at Christmas is that his Love is same yesterday, today and forever. May God bless you all and continue to bless our church as we move forward into the future.

Blessings, Rev. Robin & Tammy

A READING FROM THE LETTER TO THE HEBREWS

HEBREWS 2:10-18

It was fitting that God, for whom and through whom all things exist, in bringing many children to glory, should make the pioneer of their salvation perfect through sufferings. For the one who sanctifies and those who are sanctified all have one Father. For this reason Jesus is not ashamed to call them brothers and sisters, saying, "I will proclaim your name to my brothers and sisters, in the midst of the congregation I will praise you." And again, "I will put my trust in him." And again, "Here am I and the children whom God has given me." Since, therefore, the children share flesh and blood, he himself likewise shared the same things, so that through death he might destroy the one who has the power of death, that is, the devil, and free those who all their lives were held in slavery by the fear of death. For it is clear that he did not come to help angels, but the descendants of Abraham. Therefore he had to become like his brothers and sisters in every respect, so that he might be a merciful and faithful high priest in the service of God, to make a sacrifice of atonement for the sins of the people. Because he himself was tested by what he suffered, he is able to help those who are being tested.
