Walk To Bethlehem: As this program was designed to be distributed over several weeks, the plan was to continue counting our steps until the beginning of Epiphany. Unfortunately, due to the Province's Alert 4, we have been unable to collect/record these steps in January. Therefore, for the next 2 weeks, I encourage you to please record your journey's steps in the boxes at the entrances of the church. Up to Christmas we had walked 6,216,000 steps (3108 miles). Let's continue this active lifestyle – physical, mental, and spiritual throughout the winter months.

Random Acts of Kindness 2021. Many Acts of Kindness were recorded on our Christmas tree. Hope to have these recorded for all to see at a later date.

A READING FROM THE FIRST LETTER OF PAUL TO THE CORINTHIANS 1 CORINTHIANS 15:35-38, 42-50

But someone will ask, "How are the dead raised? With what kind of body do they come?" Fool! What you sow does not come to life unless it dies. And as for what you sow, you do not sow the body that is to be, but a bare seed, perhaps of wheat or of some other grain. But God gives it a body as he has chosen, and to each kind of seed its own body. So it is with the resurrection of the dead. What is sown is perishable, what is raised is imperishable. It is sown in dishonour, it is raised in glory. It is sown in weakness, it is raised in power. It is sown a physical body, it is raised a spiritual body. If there is a physical body, there is also a spiritual body. Thus it is written, "The first man, Adam, became a living being"; the last Adam became a life-giving spirit. But it is not the spiritual that is first, but the physical, and then the spiritual. The first man was from the earth, a man of dust; the second man is from heaven. As was the man of dust, so are those who are of the dust; and as is the man of heaven, so are those who are of heaven. Just as we have borne the image of the man of dust, we will also bear the image of the man of heaven. What I am saying, brothers and sisters, is this: flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God, nor does the perishable inherit the imperishable.

Now if Christ
is proclaimed
as raised
from the dead,
how can
some of you
say there
is no
resurrection
of the dead?

1 Corinthians 15.12
