Today is Pentecost Sunday. Pentecost Sunday comes fifty days after Easter. It is the birthday of the Christian Church. Forty days after Jesus rose from the grave on Easter Sunday, we commemorated His Ascension. Before His ascended to The Father in Heaven, Jesus promised his disciples and followers that He would not leave them comfortless, but would send the Comforter, the Holy Spirit, to guide them into all things, and to bring into existence the Church. Pentecost Sunday is about celebrating that God's Holy Spirit continues to guide His people and the Church.

Evening Service. Prayer & Praise Services will resume in October.

Trinity Sunday. Nest Sunday is Trinity Sunday in the life of our Church as well as the feast day of our congregation.
